Singapore Cruise Insurance: First in Singapore

Singapore, 21 February 2025 - United Overseas Insurance Limited (UOI) and UOB CPP are excited to announce the launch of Singapore's only dedicated cruise insurance. Designed to meet the growing demand for specialised coverage, with the rising popularity of cruise vacations, InsureCruise ensures customers pay only for what they need.

"With the increasing popularity of cruise vacations, it's vital that customers have insurance that specifically addresses their unique travel needs," said Andrew Lim, CEO of UOI. "Our unique collaboration with UOB creates real value for our customers by offering them tailored solutions, eliminating unnecessary costs associated with traditional travel insurance and complementing UOB's holistic solutions for cruise travellers."

Starting from just S$3.88 per day[#], this plan ensures you're covered in unexpected situations. Enjoy up to S$7,500 for cruise cancellation, allowing you and your family to cancel the trip without financial worry. In case of lost or stolen belongings, you're covered for up to S$2,500 baggage and personal effects protection. InsureCruise also provides onboard expenses liability protection of up to S$1,000 and unlimited coverage for emergency evacuation and repatriation, giving you extra security during your trip.

In addition, InsureCruise offers extended coverage on all activities, including land tours organised by your tour operator, so you can explore without concerns. Whether you're on relaxing onboard the cruise or embarking on exciting excursions, our plan ensures that you're fully protected, allowing you to focus on creating memories.

Get covered and set sail with InsureCruise, knowing that you're covered from start to finish!

[#]S$3.88 per day applicable to a 4-day trip.
